Resistor

Beanbag

I'm packed in a box, I'm whacked in a case
Tell me why I don't fit in
I'm told what to wear, I'm sold what I hear
Tell me am I so unique?I'm stronger than steel, I'm larger than life
Tell me why I crumble a lot
I laugh as I cheat, I'm told I am right
But I don't feel that's it anymoreAnd all of this time
The media says it's fine
The media says it's fine
The media says it's fineAnd all of this time
The media says it's fine
The media says it's fine
The media is out of lineI read what I know, I tell what I read
Tell me why I act a fool
I do what I see, I act like I do
Tell me am I so original?I'm given a look, I see that it's sad
Tell me why I'm depressed
I can't wear this shoe, it's bigger than me
I'll never fill it like you doYou are what you're called to be
(I can't be this to them)
You are what you're called to be
(I can't be this)Why can't we see?
Why can't we see?
Come onWhy can't we see?
Why can't we see?
Why can't we see? Come on
Why can't we see?(I can't be this to them)
You are what you're called to be
(I can't be this to them)
You are what you're called to be
Just look up to Him and He will tell it(I can't be this to them)
You are what you're called to be
(I can't be this to them)
You are what you're called to be
Just look up to Him and He will tell itYou are what you're called to be
You are what you're called to be
