

Kalangala

River Whyless

Come as a lion
Finding the strength in the sun
Rest your desire
Rest in the battles you've won
Here we are unbound
Here we are unbound
Rest your desire
Rest in the battles you've won
In this domino city
It's out of your hands
If it ain't in your blood
But we look our finest
With our feet in the mud
Digging to find
All and all we are all we have left to mind
Turning to see as you lift from the frozen ground
In this frozen time
Some rainy summer day is waiting
Some date in late December
Sailing to Kalangala
Fall as you will
Fall with the rise of your sun
Lie as you will
Lie in the shade of what you have done
Here we are unbound
Here we are unbound
In this domino city
It's out of your hands
If it ain't in your blood
But we look our finest
With our feet in the mud
