When she

Dallas Green

this is the one we were hoping for she loves while he lies she held his back all the way now her arms so tired why didn't he stay?this is the one we were hoping for he cries when she loves he laughs his way down to when he'll realize then he will say
"say you weren't cool, say you weren't fine, say you weren't tough enough, strong enough for my love?"
"say you weren't cool, say you weren't fine, say you weren't tough enough; strong enough for my love"this is the one we were hoping for she dies when he lies she held her eyes down as he walked on by well she said oh nohe cries, she lies then he dies
