

Find You're Gone

Wolfsheim

When I wake up I find you're gone
There should be grief but I feel none
I'm trying to leave the night behind
I hardly get my thoughts in line But there is one thing I could say
It seems I'm glad, I find you're gone I find you're gone
I find you're gone When I wake up I find you're gone
There should be grief but I feel none
I'm trying to leave the night behind
I hardly get my thoughts in line You know it's wrong, you know the way
But do you really want to stay?
A sudden thought, a thing to mind
It would be only wasting time No matter how hard you will try
It's just a feeling passing by I find you're gone
I find you're gone You know it's wrong, you know the way
But do you really want to stay?
A sudden thought, a thing to mind
It would be only wasting time I won't say that it's true
That I'm here to stick with you
You know, for me it's just a game
And that you're not the one to blame I find you're gone
I find you're gone I find you're gone
I find you're gone I find you're gone
I find you're gone I find you're gone
I find you're gone
