Sunshine In My Heart Again Sanford Townsend Band

Rent lady knockinâ€™ on my front door, telling me I gotta pay, and I bin (been) outta work, since the middle of June, but Iâ€™m used to troubles cominâ€™ my way

So my frame of mind, is doing fine, but I must be goinâ€™ insane, cause thereâ€™s sunshine in my heart again, in the middle of all this rain

Big city river tryinâ€™ to pull me down, so hard estimatinâ€™ its flow, and Iâ€™m caught in a current that moves to for a country boy that moves so slow

Oh Iâ€™m heading upstream with a full head of steam, my position it remains the same, (still thereâ€™s sunshine in my heart again, in the middle of all this rain) x 2

Gonna face the west with a smile, best way to win this race, but it just might take a little while

So I start a piyana (piano) in front of me, and Iâ€™ll play yaâ€™ll some of ma (my) tunes, and Iâ€™ll sing a few w straight from my heart, try to put a little love in the room

If ya listen to me, I might set ya free, you can learn to laugh at the pain

By (puttinâ€™ sunshine in your heart again, in the middle of all this rain) x 3

Sunshineâ€¦..give me your heartâ€¦

Put sunshine in your heart again, in the middle of all this rain.
