

When Love Cries

Donna Summer

We were strangers, who once were lovers
We've been everlasting friends
I was shattered when you walked out, boy
I was walking off the edge Friends said, I looked so down-hearted when you left
Now my broken heart is stable, I'm starting to mend
Got you back and I'm living again Oh, this must be love
That sets my soul on fire
A supernatural love
(Oh this must be love)
That makes my flame burn higher
A supernatural love Life was only tear drops falling down from my eyes
Now my broken heart is stable I'm coming alive
I can't fight what I'm feeling inside This must be love
That sets my soul on fire
A supernatural love
(Oh, this must be love)
That makes my flame burn higher
A supernatural love That gets me so excited
A supernatural love
(Oh, this must be love)
That makes us true survivors
A supernatural love Friends said, I looked so down-hearted when, when you left
Now my broken heart is stable, I'm starting to mend
Got you back and I'm living again Oh, this must be love
That sets my soul on fire
A supernatural love
(Oh, this must be love)
That makes my flame burn higher
A supernatural love That gets me so excited
A supernatural love
(Oh, this must be love)
That makes us true survivors
A supernatural love
That sets my soul on fire
A supernatural love
