

Crash and Burn Delight

Dirty Loops

Those endless tries flash 'fore our eyes just like our shadows that dance on the wall from the candlelight those fading stars reveal our scars still ready for just one more curtain call soaking in the spotlightPre Chorus: but i stay for a moment in what used to be our promise land before it runs through our fingers just like golden sand hush baby hush baby let us slip as we fall apart we call the past one last timeChorus:
table set for a crash and burn delight let's raise our glass before we go out in flames bet our lust hasn't lost its appetite the final supper would be incomplete unless we seal it with a kiss so bittersweet table set for a crash and burn delightthe twilight zone the great unknown we don't know why are we just putting trust in the sinister dawnPre ChorusChorus the final silver's only good enough the chardonnay caressing those lips of love the violins, they orchestrate a mystery so tenderly they play for you and meOhhh Oh crash and burn delight!
table set for a crash and burn delight!
ohh raise a glass before we go out in flames!
unless we seal it with a kiss so bittersweet
table set for a crash... and burn... de...LIGHT!!(table set for a crash and burn delight)let's raise a glass before we go out in flames bet our lust hasn't lost its appetite.. ooo uhh yeah yeah yeah
the final supper would be incomplete unless we seal it with a kiss so bittersweettable set for a crash and burn delighttable set for you and me for a crash and burn delight...table set for a crash and burn delight....
