I Feel Your Love In The Air

David Hasselhoff

It's another night, in another town
Just different walls to look around'
I'm thinking of the love I've left behind
No matter where I go or what I do
You always get your message through
You send it to me straight to my mindWell it's like telepathy your calling me
The power of love is pulling me
I miss you more each time I'm away
I'm holding you and touching you
And all the things we like to do
The next time I come home I'll stay(girl yeah yeah)I hear you calling
I've gotta get back home
I'll never leave again
I feel your love in the air
I see your face ev'rywhere
I feel your deep in my soul
You're always thereGrown men sometimes cry
I feel a teardrop in my eye
'cos I've been trav'llin' twenty weeks or more
I've been missing you
I sit and dream of kissing you
I badly need your lovin' that's for sure(girl yeah yeah)I hear your message
I know you're waitin'
I need your lovin'
I hear you calling me
I'm going crazy
I need, your love so badI feel your love in the air
I see your face ev'rywhere
I feel your deep in my soul
You're always thereI hear you calling my name
As I look out at the rain
Your words are turning around
Inside my brainI feel your love in the air
I see your face ev'rywhere
I feel your deep in my soul
You're always thereI hear you calling my name
As I look out at the rain
Your words are turning around
Inside my brainI feel your love in the air

I see your face ev'rywhere
I feel your deep in my soul
You're always there
