The Dark

WVNDER

Indulge â€™til I canâ€™t feel no more
Smoke chokes my throat, and then I hit the floor
No, canâ€™t do this anymore
Iâ€™ve gone to far, but still I carry on
Hope I donâ€™t wake up tomorrow
Shut off my brain, drug to avoid the sorrow
Cope, another pill to swallow
I numb my pain, but canâ€™t put down the bottle

Will I always be trapped inside?
Or are there ways to leave the mind?

When I was young, never knew why
I just donâ€™t feel right
Since then, I lie awake at night
Can't sleep through my internal fight
What will my fate be should I die?
Will I find peace beyond this life?
And if I go, will my loved ones be alright?

Call my name in the dark, so I can find you
Fall like rain from above, show me how to love like Iâ€™m designed to

Am I a slave to addiction?
Filling out my own prescription

Never imagined that Iâ€™d end up this way
Despite the choices Iâ€™ve made
And now Iâ€™m living with a foot in the grave
Never learn from my mistakes
Because my sanity has all but decayed
My state of constant disarray
All alone in the shadow I portray

Call my name in the dark, so I can find you
Fall like rain from above, show me how to love like Iâ€™m designed to Cause I'm bent out of shape from waiting, and I'm so sick always sedating myself. Iâ€™m barely hanging on Carve my name on the wall, if I should be wrong

Indulge â€™til I canâ€™t feel no more

Smoke chokes my throat, and then I hit the floor
No, I canâ€™t do this anymore
Iâ€™ve gone to far, but still I carry on
Hope I donâ€™t wake up tomorrow
Shut off my brain, drug to avoid the sorrow
Cope, another pill to swallow
I numb my pain
