

Nightmare

Eve 6

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Blemishing mirror fright,
Gonna take a bit of a fall tonight
Dreamed that I was underneath a naked women
Saying something that I can't repeatAwakened by the runway noise
Suck it up kid, assume battle poise
It's a lonely time for yours truly I know
I don't need to stay awakeIn my nightmare I feel so alive
In my dream-scape escapades
I make the grade, I save the dayPull here, push me there, a little lower
A little closer to the spot that's bare
That's the toy that fills my void
It's apparent I've inherited a demon joyIt's a lonely, the time for your truly I know
I don't need to stay awakeIn my nightmare I feel so alive
In my dream-scape escapades
I make the grade, I save the daySuck, suck, suck, goIn my nightmare I feel so alive
In my dream-scape escapades
I make the grade, I save the day
