

New Galfriend

Diana King

Hi, how you doin', long time no see?
Still remember your face
'Cause I see it in my dreams
Boy you're looking good, but then you always did
Who's the chick with the pretty face
Is she the one you're with? Don't tell me you want us to be friends
That's something I just can't do
Boyfriend I'm sorry, forgive me
I got plans for you I don't like your new galfriend
'Cause she's standing in the place
Where I should have been
I don't like your new galfriend
She's messing with my head
She's sleeping in my bed See I had it all worked out
To get you back as my man
To have her in my way wasn't part of the plan
What is this I see, a new shinning diamond ring
Are you sure she has no secrets
'Cause I've heard so many things Was it so easy, to leave me?
And find somebody new
You'll be sorry, without me
'Cause she's no good for you No, no, I don't like your new galfriend
'Cause she's standing in the place
Where I should have been
I don't like your new galfriend
She's messing with my head
She's sleeping in my bed I don't like your new garlfriend
And I don't think that you should ever see her again
I don't like your new galfriend
She's messing with my plan
She's fucking with my man Drop the version Comp, comp, comp, comp, competition
