

Murder at the Senior Prom

Quincy Punx

believe it or not i wan't always this fucking cool i used to get a lot of shit when i was back in school but one day i turned the tables on all those assholes I filled em' all full of 9mm bullet holes
mass murder at the senior prom x2 I padlocked the gym doors the night of the senior prom under the bleachers i planted several pipe bombs stood up on the balcony sub-machine gun in my hand said "I'm your new prom king, does everybody understand?" rounded up all the jocks who used to chase me home from school tied their hands and feet and pushed them in the swimming pool lined all the teachers who flunked me up against a wall then one by one I stuck a butcher knife into them all found that little fuck who got me busted for smokin' dope now he's hanging from the flag pole kicking at the end of a rope last but certainly not least when everybody else was dead I sodomized the cheerleaders and then i cut off all their heads
