

Facing Changes (Facing Changes Version)

Hangnail

It happened without warning
It came so fast
Unanswered questions hanging
Over my headFacing changes, on my own
Never helping, I'm falling back in the hole
Facing changes, not my own
Unexpected, I think I'm losing controlTime only can do so much
Time's not enough
I'm searching and not finding
What's to becomeFacing changes, on my own
Never helping, I'm falling back in the hole
Facing changes, not my own
Unexpected, I think I'm losing controlIt's not so easy
To put the past behind me
You can't just live and forget
All that you ever have knownThings seemed so certain
And now I'm learning
Our hope can't be placed in
These things that don't come from aboveFacing changes, on my own
Never helping, I'm falling back in the hole
Facing changes, not my own
Unexpected, I think I'm losing controlIt happened without warning
It came so fast
Unanswered questions hanging
Over my head
