Dragginâ€™ on way too long, got a conflict inside.
Wanderinâ€™ off on my own from His design.
Many avenues Iâ€™ve tried, â€˜cept the one thatâ€™s right

So break through, give it up, change my stubborn ways
Stop waiting so long, let Him deal with the pain.
Ask Him to clear the things that block His rays.

Break down, bow down, get down and pray,
Break down, tear down, break down and give it to the King.
Break down, bow down, get down, donâ€™t delay,
Break down, tear down, break down and give it to the King of Kings.

The Battleâ€™s in my mind, struggleâ€™s in my heart.
Fightings in my soul, need a new start.
Help me make the noise of life fade, give Him control

Break down, bow down, get down and pray,
Break down, tear down, break down and give it to the King.
Break down, bow down, get down, donâ€™t delay,
Break down, tear down, break down and give it to the King of Kings.

Amazing freedom rings when you give into Him.
Realize His ways are better hear what I say.
Break down to your God, break down and pray.
