Heaven Sent

Mr. Little Jeans

I'm no longer fighting it
I'm all done
For your love I'll take a bullet
It would be a sin to stop for it's begun
What will be will be so let itAnd I can see the lightWhen I'm looking at the sunshine
Through falling rain
Now I know that there is peace of mind
My world without you in it
Wouldn't be the same
I feel love that's heaven-sent divineAnd then I see every reason just burning up
Let's stay till we fade with the sun
Our dreams are still worth living
Until they stop
Until every bit of living's doneOoh I'm burning up
Ooh I'm burning up with your loveIf there's a rhyme and reason then it's a lie
Got a rainbow undercover
See the missing pieces in the pale blue sky
Oh they fall towards each otherAnd I can see the light
Yeah I no longer fightWhen I'm looking at the sunshine
Through falling rain
Now I know that there is peace of mind
My world without you in it
Wouldn't be the same
I feel love that's heaven-sent divineOoh I'm burning up
Ooh I'm burning up with your love
Ooh I'm burning up
Ooh an angel sent from above
