My Store Room

Francis Wolf

My Store Room

My Store Room Is Full, From All The Trivial Memories
Everytime I Enter, I Take Out Something I Don't Really Need
So Everytime It's A Challenge, To Pass My Store Room With Ease
Everytime It's A Challenge, To Pass My Store Room Door With Ease

Me and My Store Room, A Bittersweet Love Affair
I'm The One Who Filled It But I Don't Know What's In There

My Store Room Is Filling, With Things I Put In There Everyday
Everytime I Enter, I Leave With A Box I Think I Need
So Everytime It's A Challenge, To Pass My Store Room With Ease
