Turn Off the Radio

A Day to Remember

T-T-T-Turn off the radio

There's something missing
There's an anger living half the world away
I hope you listen for a person
With perspective that isn't always the same

No need to water it down right now
You play the victim, but it's all a charade
Times they, they are a-changin'
Get your things in order, or get out the way

And it goes on and on and on

Turn off the radio
Till they've got something real to say
Turn off the radio
To clear my mind and let me think
I need an answer, I've got the questions
Can't anyone out there just relate?
Turn off the radio
Turn off the radio

There's a division in our culture that we live with every day
We're just people eating people, such a sick sad world we live in today
All I know's I wanna be everything expected of me
So everyone we can agree somebody out there understands me

And it goes on and on and on

Turn off the radio
Till they've got something real to say
Turn off the radio
To clear my mind and let me think
I need an answer, I've got the questions
Can't anyone out there just relate?
Turn off the radio
Turn off the radio

Someone out there if you're listening

We're the victims of our indifference
Tell us more without controlling
What we think with what you're showing

Turn off the radio
Till they've got something real to say
Turn off the radio
To clear my mind and let me think
I need an answer, I've got the questions
Can't anyone out there just relate?
Turn off the radio
Turn off the radio
