

Winter '05

Ra Ra Riot

Orange lamps shine by willow bay
Ice covers from the lake to where I lay
In a state
In which I dream
If you were here
Winter wouldn't pass quite so slow
And if you were here
Then I'd have a choice to live, not be alone
But instead I sit atop the crest
Looking down on the valley
Where the dead rest
And every morning I wake beside myself
But I digress
If you were here
Winter wouldn't pass quite so slow
And if you were here
Then I'd have a choice to live, not be alone
If you were here
Winter wouldn't pass quite so slow
And if you were here
Then I'd have a choice to live, not be alone
And if you were here
Winter wouldn't pass quite so slow
And if you were here
Then I'd have a choice to live, not be alone
