Some Fantastic Place

Squeeze

She gave to me her tenderness
Her friendship and her love
I see her face from time to time
There in the sky aboveWe grew up learning as we went
What a voyage our life could be
It took us through a wilderness
Into the calmest seaHer smile could lift me from the pain
I often found within
She said some things I won't forget
She made a few bells ringSo simple her humility
Her beauty found in grace
Today she lives another life
In some fantastic placeShe showed me how to raise a smile
Out of her bed of gloom
And in her garden sanctuary
A life began to bloomShe visualized a world ahead
And planned how it would be
She left behind the strongest love
That lives eternallyI have the hope that when it's time
For me to come her way
That she'll be there to show me round
Whenever comes that dayHer love was life and happiness
And in her steps I trace
The way to live a better life
In some fantastic place
