Ring

Closedown

I remember the smile on her face
When I put you on her finger
I felt the love in her sweet embrace
And all the happiness you brought herI still see it all in my mind
The way she loved me all the timeRing, ring, you ain't nothin' but a thing
Yesterday we used to hold her
Little band of gold with a little blue stone
I'm sure gonna miss the hand that you were onShe'd wear you when we were together
She'd wear you when I was gone
'Cause we believed in love forever
But I guess we were wrongNow she's found somebody new
She doesn't care about me or youRing, ring, you ain't nothin' but a thing
Yesterday we used to hold her
Little band of gold with a little blue stone
I'm sure gonna miss the hand that you were onWish, I could put it all behind
But I can't keep her off my mind
Oh, oh what can I do?Ring, ring, you ain't nothin' but a thing
Yesterday we used to hold her
Little band of gold with a little blue stone
I'm sure gonna miss the hand that you were onLittle band of gold with a little blue stone, oh
