Too Late Tonight

Boyzone

And it's too late for us to argue now And it's too late for you to cry And it's too late for you to ask me now Oh it's just too late tonight And the sweet rose has bloomed and died And it's too late for you to find me now And my feelings for you have changed now And I told you it would come to this And it's just too late tonight But when I talk to you, you always resist And you only see what you wanna see But you never listen to me And it's too late for questions now And so you sit and wonder why And you're searching for all the answers now But it's just too late tonight It's too late tonight It's too late tonight It's too late tonight It's too late tonight It's too late tonight It's too late tonight It's too late tonight It's too late tonight It's too late tonight Oh yeah It's too late tonight Everything about me's changed It's too late tonight Now our lives are rearranged It's too late tonight It's too late tonight Everytime we try to talk It's too late tonight All you ever do is walk It's too late tonight It's too late tonight It's too late tonight
