

Running from You

Saving Abel

I say goodbye to the rear view mirror as a silhouette fades of you
Well, I hope you think that I'll be back someday
Someday I'll only be back just to leave you again
And ooh, I've only come back just to leave you again and again
I guess I'm made for leaving I'm running from you, can I get any further away?
It feels like the first time I've been alone
If I'm running from you will you follow me down to the end?
If I fall again, will you say goodbye?
Will you say goodbye? Yeah I pulled into this town and I'm knocking on your door
Before the morning sun sets on my face
As I'm staring at your face today
Today I've only come back just to leave you again
And ooh, I've only come back just to leave you again and again
I guess I'm made for leaving I'm running from you, can I get any further away?
It feels like the first time I've been alone
If I'm running from you will you follow me down to the end?
If I fall again, will you say goodbye?
Will you say goodbye? Yeah If I stay, you got to understand
It's my authority, I can leave if I want, I'm my own man If I'm running from you, can I get any further away?
It feels like the first time I've been alone
If I'm running from you will you follow me down to the end?
If I fall again, will you say goodbye? Yeah
Say goodbye? Yeah If I'm running from you
