None of my friends are punks
They all work at corporate jobs
While I sit here like a slob
Yeah none of my friends are punksAll of my friends are drunks
All of my friends are drunks
We go drinking every night
Looking to get in a fight
Cause all of my friends are drunksYeah thank you
Goodnight
Guess that's a wrapI kept laughing because I was thinking it did sound like you were saying
None of my friends are drugs?
But then it said all my friends are drunks?
that's not funny at all
I don't understandNone of my friends are punks
None of my friends are punks
They all work at corporate jobs
While I sit here like a slob
Yeah none of my friends are punksNone of my friends are punks
None of my friends are punks
They converse with upper class
While I sit here on my ass
Yeah none of my friends are punksAll of my friends are drunks

All of my friends are drunks
We go drinking every night
Looking to get in a fight
Cause all of my friends are drunksAll of my friends are drunks
All of my friends are drunks
And they like to hum along
While I sing these shitty songs cause all of my friends are drunks
