

Strength

Embodiment

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Take me up from this world
Can't you see this hurting inside?
How you allow Him
To defile my person I invite infelicity
And this world it tries to weaken my faith
So You are my strength
In this world of ignorance Blinded by sin I question your motives
Leaving myself to abhorrent ways
This devil is beaten, I decollate your servants
Sword of the spirit I will defy you Lord, You are so faithful with me everyday
Your heart forever graceful assurance of victory In my heart and soul, no dominion
The path that Christ walked I choose to live
Death is swallowed up in victory
My faith in God I will not shudder In my heart and soul, no dominion
The path that Christ walked I choose to live
Death is swallowed up in victory
My faith in God I will not shudder I will not shudder
I choose to walk the way that Christ did
I will not shudder
I choose to walk the way that Christ did Take me up from this world
Can't you see this hurting inside?
How you allow Him
To defile my person Blinded by sin I question your motives
Leaving myself to abhorrent ways
This devil is beaten I decollate your servants
Sword of the spirit I will defy you Lord, You are so faithful with me everyday
Your heart forever graceful assurance of victory
