

Emergency (911)

Jordin Sparks

You know my ring tone
Why don't you answer the phone
If you don't get here I'm dancing alone
Get in the fast lane
'Cause someone will ask me if you don't
I hear the music, I'm ready to go
You better get here 'cause I'm dancing alone
Better get driving and turn on the siren
'Cause you're in the danger zone
You know it's Friday, why don't you call me?
You got my number, hey, I'm still waiting
Why don't you call me? Aren't you my boyfriend?
You're suppose to be here like an hour ago
I bought this dress for you
I got my legs so smooth, I got my mani, pedi
Went and got my hair done too
All dressed up and nowhere to go
It's an emergency
I need you here with me, it's a 911, 911
It's an emergency
Can't you see it's a 911, 911
Dying of dance deprivation, emotional starvation
I need resuscitation, getting impatient
It's an emergency, emergency, 911, 911
You know I told you, you can't be late now
Watching my watch tick, tick, tick, tick
There goes my attitude, I'm almost over you
You were supposed to be here like an hour ago
That's what you always do
Give me some lame excuse
Like you were working, sleeping
Come on, baby, try the truth
All dressed up and nowhere to go
It's an emergency
I need you here with me, it's a 911, 911
It's an emergency
Can't you see it's a 911, 911
Dying of dance deprivation, emotional starvation
I need resuscitation, getting impatient

It's an emergency, emergency, 911, 911
You know my ring tone
Why don't you answer the phone?
If you don't get here, I'm dancing alone
Get in the fast lane
'Cause someone will ask me if you don't
I hear the music, I'm ready to go
You better get here 'cause I'm dancing alone
Better get driving, so turn on the siren
'Cause you're in the danger zone
It's an emergency
I need you here with me, it's a 911, 911
It's an emergency
Can't you see it's a 911, 911
Dying of dance deprivation, emotional starvation
I need resuscitation, getting impatient
It's an emergency, emergency, 911, 911
