The Last Great Punk Rock Song (JV Version)

Say Anything

It's the last time I'll fight the wrongs, I'll sing about the girls who left me
The last great punk rock song before I unspike my hair and carry on
And I will wail about anarchy, drums will blare in rhythmic harmony
Anti establishment just gets me nowhere fast
And it's the last great time I'll try
Please give me a reason not to cry
And it's the last great punk rock song
I hope you'll listen to me when I won't carry on
I have a few songs about remorse, and I sing until my voice gets hoarse
But most are about girl problems
Until I put down my strat
And stop acting dumb
