The World Ends Tonight

Until June

Falling from the sky, neon lights Like a dream that came alive i rub my eyeswhen the people came to see they turned their backs on me ooh ooh ooh if the world ends tonight will you stay by my side i'm afraid i'll surviveleft behind in fear, i don't belong here like a love i never knew it broke my heart in twowhen the people came to see
will you stay by my side i'm afraid i'll survivein the morning when this is through once the early lights take the moon if we're making this over youooh ooh oph if the world ends tonight
will you stay by my side i'm afraid i'll surviveooh ooh ooh if the world ends tonight
will you stay by my side
i'm afraid i'll surviveooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh oohhh
