Fallen

Cryptal Darkness

[Music and Lyrics: Mark Kelson]I'm lost, I've fallen into a pain so deep Mercy is all I need a hand to save my soulI'll give you all
if you want it
I'll give you all
if you need it
If you want my pain
If you want my painDrowning in a void am I less of a man to need I'm stronger to grieve than to bury it down deepI've fallen. . .I'll give you all
if you want it
I'll give you all
if you need it
If you want my pain
If you want my painI turn to you and I dont know why needing more than you can give not giving as much as you need an irony so close to my heartI've Fallen again and again. . .
