Drug

Berlin

I was fine, I was alone, and I was strong.
Now you're here, and I'm so weird it must be love.
Now I don't have any protection incase you go.
Oh I need a suit of armour for my soul.
Strung out, only you unwind me.
I'm lost, only you can find me.
Your needle taken deep inside me.
You've become my drug. [x2]
He was fine, we had good times, we said our vows.
'Til he lied, said goodbye, and the bomb went off.
Everything I ever built on blew apart.
Now I need a suit of armous for my heart.
Strung out, only you unwind me.
I'm lost, only you can find me.
Your needle taken deep inside me.
You've become my drug. [x2]

Another loveaholic wanting the high.
Another loveaholic wanting the high...
Another loveaholic just wanna get high?
Now I don't have any protection incase you go...
Oh I need a suit of armour for my soul...
But I bleed when I'm alone.
Strung out, only you unwind me.
I'm lost, only you can find me.
Your needle taken deep inside me.
You've become my drug. [x2]
Another loveaholic wanting the high.
Another loveaholic wanting the high...
Another loveaholic you wanna get high?
Yeah...yeah.
