

Death's Door

Uncle Acid and the Deadbeats

I don't know what I hold in my hand
 Could it be that I'm evil?
Plunder on there's no law in this land,
 The horror guides me through
 Masterer and subjector of pain
 I'm the Godder of worms
Devil's Lieger controls the insane
 You'll see it when I'm through
 I'll hang you higher than before
I'll leave you dying at death's door
 Overruler and slaver of blood
 She's impaled in the fire
Fear of God drags her name through the mud
 And now her life's cut short
 Dominator and firmer of sins
 I'm the lord of the wastelands
Bloody hammers and burning hot pins
 Her story shall be told
I'm the juster and steerer of good
 As they lace my hand with gold
I'll stand guard as she's nailed to the wood
 No truer man than me
 I'm the kind and tormentor of all
 As I travel the cities
Broken peasants and mayors shall call
 My blood lust never ends
