Red Umbrella

DJ Topcat

Sometimes life can get a little dark
I'm sure I've got bruises on my heart
Here come the black clouds full of pain
Yeah, you can break away without the chainsYour love is like a red umbrella
Walk the streets like Cinderella
Everyone can see it on my faceSo let it rain, it's pourin' all around me
Let it fall, it ain't gonna drown me
After all I'm gonna be okay, so let it rainYou can wear your sorrow like an old raincoat
You can save your tears in a bottle made of gold
But the glitter on the sidewalk always shines
Yeah, even God needs to cry sometimesYour love is like a red umbrella
Always there to make me better
When my broken dreams are fallin' from the skyLet it rain, it's pourin' all around me
Let it fall, it ain't gonna drown me
After all I'm gonna be okay, so let it rain
Oh, let it rain, let it fall, I'm gonna be okay, so let it rainLet it wash my tears away
Tomorrow's another day, yeahSo let it rain, it's pourin' all around you
Let it fall, it ain't gonna drown you
After all I'm gonna be okay, so let it rain
Oh, let it rain, let it fall, I'm gonna be okaySo let it rain, it's pourin' all around me
Let it fall, it ain't gonna drown me
After all I'm gonna be okay, so let it rain
Oh, let it rain, let it fall, I'm gonna be okay, so let it rainOh, let it rain
