

Rise Of The Fallen

mentalissues

Up from the ashes of despair and loss

Years of enslavement now come with a higher cost

Bureaucracy, you chose to rule with fear

Now feel the wrath that comes from all those years
You choose to shut your eyes, now repent
Rise of the fallen, suffer the hand you dealt yourself

Rise of the fallen, the fallacy of fractured wealth

Rise of the fallen, ignore the parts of your machine

Rise of the fallen, drink from the fountain of your poisoned dream
Destroy the world and all the wars we're on Ashes to ashes, dust to dust will come

I, the destroyer of both worlds

Born from the womb of insult I come
You choose to shut your eyes, now repent

You choose to shut your eyes, now repent
Rise of the fallen, suffer the hand you dealt yourself

Rise of the fallen, the fallacy of fractured wealth

Rise of the fallen, ignore the parts of your machine

Rise of the fallen, drink from the fountain of your poisoned dream
Drink from the fountain of your poisoned dream

Bled from your machine

Choke on the spirits that you tried to eat

Now on you they feed
You build the part, now you play it

We become the master, drown in all the laughter

Law from below, now you obey it

Death comes never faster, this is the disaster
