

So You're Saying There's a Chance...

Four Year Strong

I never told you how much it means to me
To see you crawling on your hands and knees
And I don't like to use the word pathetic
But I call it like I see
And worst of all when all said and done you'll be crawling back to me
What am I left to do?
About all the shit that you put me through
It must be nice to be you
Standing on the edge of collapse
Living life without a clue
It must be nice to be you
The time has come for you to face it
You finally made it
Past the point of no return
You'd better believe it
Don't start a fire
If you're not willing to stomp it out
I Take the bait take the bait
It's the last time that I'll make that mistake
The last time that I push 'til it breaks
