

One Way Ride

Hooverphonic

Concentrate, you're on the middle
Of this one way ride
In the center lays the key
To get back off to a while
If you can't solve this riddle
I'm afraid you'll have to stay
In the ???
Of underestimated betrayal See them point in your direction
See the indifference in their eyes
Just living in oblivion
Struggling with too many wires
So you've got to solve this riddle
Other wise you won't get back
So if I were you
I would concentrate on the morbid one way track
