

Spank Bank

Goldfinger

I never felt as sick as I do now
I never felt so alone
The walls around confine me like a cell
And so I feel like a dirty old man, hey hey I gotta break away from Escape away from
Just make my way out of this place
I try to break away from it
Escape away from it
Make my way right outta this place But my feet are stuck
And my half a buck
Is wasted on this machine
And I'm never comin' back
To the spank bank of lust
Gay, straight, bicurious
Just makes me furious
Spank bank of lust
Thirty two channels
I don't wanna see a she-male fuckin' Maybe I'll do it
Alright, that's alright
