

Rain.Sun.Gone.

Mudvayne

So far
Left with nothing
Hanging by a memory
No stars
To give me one wish
So lost in the dark
Feels like I'm caving in from the outside
All right
All wrong
See you again
So long
Nothing matters anymore at all
Nothing matters anymore Life's not meant to be disposable
Lost. Found. Dead.
Ready and willing
Can't stop the bleeding
Life's not meant to be expendable
Rain. Sun. Gone.
Left robbed unwilling
Can't fight the feeling So low
Overwhelming
Clinging to a tragedy
So clear
Hear weeping voices
Tears fall in the dark
Feels like I'm carving in from the outside
So lost. So gone. So wrong. Life's not meant to be disposable
Lost. Found. Dead.
Ready and willing
Can't stop the bleeding
Life's not meant to be expendable
Rain. Sun. Gone.
Can't fight the feeling It's never ending
Never goes away
But you did
It's never ending
Never goes away
But you did...

Why

The body's just a vehicle to hold

Until we find another space

Find another place

To start this over

The enemy

The action I can't condone

Do you suffer with me

Can I give you my loss

To feel

To hold close

Can I give you my pain

To feel

To be eaten alive by

Conscience

Suffer

Fucking suffer

Suffer like me Life's not meant to be disposable

Lost. Found. Dead.

Ready and willing

Can't stop the bleeding

Life's not meant to be expendable

Rain. Sun. Gone.

Can't fight the feeling
