

All Men Lie (feat. Timbaland)

Monica

What's his name, girl?
Was he good to you?
I need to know, girl
What I didn't do I maybe saw you with him in the photo
[?]
Don't they say every man (every man)
Is a damn good liar (liar)
But it ain't worth the pain
Take it from me What'd she say?
(All men lie, men lie)
That's what she said to me
She's saying
(All men lie, men lie)
In the [?], she's screaming
(All men lie, oh)
Baby, that's the truth
I know the grass ain't always green on the other side What happened to trust?
Boy, what happened to us?
You're doing too much
[?], we gonna get
You ain't half fucked up, fucked up
See, you might play the game
But you don't play with my heart
If you were smart like a [?]
You wanna get harder (All men lie, men lie)
That's what she said to me
(All men lie)
She's saying
(All men lie, men lie)
In the [?] she's screaming
(All men lie, oh)
Baby, that's the truth
I know the grass ain't always green on the other side, eh If all men lie, tell me what do women do
(They're saying the truth)
Eh
If all men lie, tell me what do women do
(They're saying the truth, do do do)
Eh
If all men lie, tell me what do women do

(Ah)
Eh, if, eh
Tell me what do women do, eh
