

Born In a Flash

Mother Mother

Photograph
Looking down at me
I'm looking at the past
Something about my family In high contrast
Something about my infancy
In white and black
Something about my memories In a photograph
A portrait of the past
Born in a flash Polaroid, 1954, it was a
Polaroid, '55 through '56 where all go straight
God, he was an anarchist
We can't afford
Somebody catching wind of this here Polaroid, a portrait of before
Born in a flash, born in a flash
A little piece of the past
Born in a flash Photograph, a portrait of the past
Born in a flash, born in a flash
Born in a flash, born in a flash

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>