

A Passed Life

Fozzy

Mystery finds me in darkness
Sun won't shine
Blistering pain from a passed life
Cross that lineInto the moonlight I ride
One way trip to the other side
Into the moonlight I ride
Losing my grip I cannot hideStanding on top of a mountain
Long way down
Hearing the voice of a madman
Hit the groundInto the moonlight I ride
One way trip to the other side
Into the moonlight I ride
Losing my grip I cannot hideInto the casket I go
Debt has been paid seeds have been sown
End of the line all that I knowInto the inferno I crawl
Licking the flames tasting my fall
Melting away sirens that callInto the moonlight I ride
One way trip to the other side
Into the moonlight I ride
Losing my grip I cannot hideDreaming about
My passed lifeInto the moonlight I ride
One way trip to the other side
Into the moonlight I ride
Losing my grip I cannot hideOh I can't hide
From my passed lifeOh I can't hide
From my passed life
