

Where There's Muck

Robbie Williams

Oh I could tell you please try and understand but the ship left unmanned out at sea The laughter there is canned cause the jokes are secondhand God forbid I didn't blend this mutiny Before the boats were wreck send a dove to land on deck cause the noose around my neck is killing me The anger makes me boil the mistakes I make are royal there's a sadness in the silent part of me. Where there's muck there's brass
kiss my ass
where there's muck
kiss my ass I'm not asking you I'm telling you kiss my aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaass Don't tell me the truth I know I've been uncouth Well my breath's a hundred proof, I cannot breath. Callin' ship to shore Dunno what all the fuss is for save the women and the children after me Before the boats were wreck
there's a sadness in the silent part of me. Where there's muck
there's brass
I'm telling you
kiss my aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaass my aaaaaaaaaaaaaass Would've been loved should've been loved Could've been loved
Would've been loved
should've been loved

should've been loved Could've been loooooooooooooooooooved.
