

Slow and Quiet

Promise and the Monster

Verse 1]

It's the twentieth today

My thoughts are sort of vague today

All I know their flesh will soon behave[Verse 2]

People crawling round in the dark

Of the bushes surround this house

And all the yellow glow

They are quiet

[Verse 3]

A release time after time

Crueler than the turning time

Let them run this time they cannot hide

Let my thoughts sink deep into

Their bones before

They close their eyes
