

Be With Me

Darren Espanto

Yeah, yeah, oh
Would you be with me
Would you be with me
Oh hey oh We've gone to rough times and doubt
You stand by me through it all
And know you never gave things up
We know my world was there Sunshine always shines in your eyes
When the cloud seems to calm down
Life just brighten
Each day and night You're bringing up
all the best in me
Would you be with me
Would you be with me
You're bringing up
All that I can be
Would you stay with me
Would you stay with me Really know what I always need
I want you here with me
I want you here with me And this is what I want you to hear
Would you be with me
Would you be with me I always count on you babe,
Now listen to what I'll say
My heart knows no other desires
And stay in here by your side Sunshine always shines in your eyes
When the cloud seems to calm down
Life just brighten
Each day and night
You're bringing up
all the best in me
Would you be with me
Would you be with me You're bringing up
All that I can be
Would you stay with me
Would you stay with me Really know what I always need
I want you here with me
I want you here with me And this is what I want you to hear
Would you be with me
Would you be with me One world was so down and low
You have no reason to doubt

No reason to give up
'Coz there's no other way but to the top
Your light never fades in the dark
Shining here in my heart
No one can keep us apart
You're bringing up
Would you be with me
Oh, would you be with me
All that I can be
Oh, would you stay with me
Really know what I always need
And this is what I want you to hear
Would you be with me
Would you be with me
Would you be with me
You're bringing up
All that I can be
Would you be with me
Baby, would you be with me
