

Gone

Char Avell

Baby now that you have left me,
I can't find my way,
Shine your light on me once again,
Every step that I'm taking,
I'm trying to be brave,
Who I am trying to get when its all over my face.
Girl i will climb the highest mountain,
Just to see your face once again,

Now you're gone,
How could you go and leave me all alone,
I'm down on my knees,
Come back home

Baby I'm losing my mind,
holding onto the thoughts,
over we had them but not longer,
I'm just hoping and praying to hold you once again,
God knows how much my heart is crying for you,
Girl I will swim deeper ocean,
Just to hear your voice once again.

Now you're gone,
How could you go and leave me all alone,
I'm down on my knees,
Come back home

Now you're gone,
To know how much longer I can't hold on,
I can't find reason to live on,
Now you're gone,
You are the one who can come and rescue me,
Save me
Love me
Hold me

Now your are gone,
How could you go and leave me all alone,
I'm down on my knees,

Come back home
