

Fruitcake

Ratpack

There's a fruitcake for everybody
There's a fruitcake for everyone
There are b-sides to every story
If you decide to have some fun
    Take a bite
    It's alright
There's some brandy and star margarine to make it bright
    Take a bite
    It's alright
A little lovin' and some fruit to bake
    Life is a piece of cake
    It's the season for being happy
    But the reason is dead and gone
    If the reason for being happy
Takes a backseat when the season's done
    Just take a bite
    It's alright
Taste the taste that sent all mothers giggling in sheer delight
    Take a bite
    It's alright
A little lovin and some fruit to bake
    Life is a piece of cake

Everybody, everywhere people do you really care
    Christmas time has once again arrived
Everybody, everywhere people do you really care
    Christmas time has once again arrived
    Mistletoe and a little snow
But we don't get it there at fruitcake heights
    Mistletoe and a little snow
But we don't get it there at fruitcake heights
    Stars are falling down from heaven
    But it's nowhere near our town
Miracles are falling down from heaven
    But it's nowhere near our town
There's a fruitcake in everybody
    There's a fruitcake in everyone
    There are b-sides to every story
    If you decide to have some fun

Just take a bite
It's alright
Taste the taste that sent all mothers giggling in sheer delight
Take a bite
It's alright
A little lovin and some fruit to bake
Life is a piece of cake
