Believe In Love

Michelle Aavitsland

And now
I believe in love
I believe in love
I believe in loveThe flame that used to burn down to hell, hasn't turned
I go crazy, I go crazy for your love
Like we're thousand miles apart
I don't think that was so smart
I go crazy, I go crazy for your loveYou feel like the world is going down
But then you realize
It's just the beginning
My heart is about to explode
But I will survive
We will be winningAnd now
I believe in love
I believe in love
I believe in love
And now
I believe in love
I believe in love
I believe in loveI just wanted the control
Make you fill an empty hole
But I am crazy, I am crazy for your love
Oh, your smile has kicked me down
I'm so nervous when you're around
But I'm crazy, I am crazy for your loveYou feel like the world is going down
But then you realize
It's just the beginning
My heart is about to explode
But I will survive
We will be winningAnd now
I believe in love
I believe in love
I believe in love
And now
I believe in love
I believe in love
I believe in loveOh, babe I would never leave if you really want me
Take you to another world if you wanna save me

Even if you say you're afraid, I will always stay
Take a chance, hold your hand, as long as you are with me
Babe
Take my breath away, we are a team now
Take me home, give me space, cause I wanna be yours
Even if you're dumb, even if your night is grey
I will never be awayAnd now
I believe in love
I believe in love
I believe in love
And now
I believe in love
I believe in love
I believe in love
