Wind In My Sails

Chase Coy

Lately I've been thinking hard
If life is a play what's my part?
Am I just meant to be a boy lost out at sea?
Cause I'm so much more
Chorus:
So I'm setting sail for a new shore tonight
One that I've seen before tonight
It's easy to tell there is wind in my sail
And I'm alright, Yeah I'm just fine
Lately I've been thinking long
I have I been doing this all wrong?
Am i just meant to stay who I was yesterday?
Cause I'm so much more
Chorus:

So I'm setting sail for a new shore tonight
One that I've never seen before tonight
It's easy to tell there is wind in my sail
And I'm alright, yeah I'm just find.
Wait for sunset
I will fake my
I'll be back when I mistake come
So don't wave goodbye
No don't say goodbye to me
Just stay away from the seaside
Keeping your eyes on the distant horizon
Knowing that I'll be home soon
So I'm setting sail for a new shore tonight
One that I've never seen before tonight
It's easy to tell there is wind in my sail
And I'm alright, yeah I'm just fine.
