

Fall on You

Moby Grape

Yes, I know, it's fallin'
Yes, I know, it's fallin' Did you ever get the feeling
That your baby's gonna set you free?
Won't she tell you why it's over?
You try and tell her she'll be sorry
Do you sit and wonder "Was it me?"
It'll happen with somebody new
The pain that's gonna fall on you
But all the time you're worried 'bout
And they're gonna disconnect your phone You better pay up what you owe
You forgot to make a payment
They're gonna try and repossess your home
They want their bread in the morning
Plus your next month's payment, too
But all the time you're worried 'bout
The pain that's gonna fall on you
You caught your baby cheatin' But all the time you're thinkin'
But you say you love her any way
Just to find a way to make her pay
You think to leave her broken hearted
But all the time you're worried 'bout
Is the only thing that you can do
The pain that's gonna fall on you Yes, I know, it's fallin'
Yes, I know, it's fallin'
