Noise In Your Head (Album)

Bad Luck

(Whistle)

Verse 1:

You'll figure it out
And know that you got time before you figure it out
Everything will be fine if you forget all about
The ones who don't know why you haven't seen them around
But you pass through their towns
I know you're sick of them now

Cause highschool wasn't nice to you
And when you got out
The same jackasses followed you
And kicked you around
Some of them were your bosses too
The words are spelled out
Just can't find your way out
If I know

Bridge:

They'll laugh at you
You can't be true
It's overwhelming, too
Point that you don't know if You're still real
Or how to feel
You're losing your appeal
What a poor performance now

Chorus:

Shouldn't I know
I was the one who carried the show
But I'm pursed to tell you now
They shouldn't care about whether it's all in your head
And you'll make up that what you will
It's not my problem
It's not your problem if you want

You call the shots
And they do not

(Whistle)

Verse 2:

Moving ahead
Sounds easier than it really is
Noise in your head is breaking up your sentences
You've already said enough to make them hate you
So now shoot from the hip
And don't stop 'till those motherfuckers
Are filled with lead

Of course don't take that literal
I'm not eminem
No, I can't go to court
And they don't need to be dead
Instead say fuck off kindly
And get on with your shit
Mean it's their live it is, sing away!

Bridge:

It's funny how they sit around
The longest fingers out to point out how you resign
Break them off, I'd rather not
I'm scared that if we touch
you wanna keeping me in line

Chorus:

Shouldn't I know
I was the one who carried the show
But I'm pursed to tell you now
They shouldn't care about whether it's all in your head
And you'll make up that what you will
It's not my problem
It's not your problem if you want

So say what you want but
First think about what you should want
You call the shots

And they do not

(Whistle)
