

The Chains That Bind Us

Napalm Death

Forced exposure create what's expected
Face neglect's price no one wants to pay
Line in line, stereotypes perpetrated
Similarity of negativity The chains that bind us, grow stronger
Break away from the pack of mindless dogs
Taste the scent, realize ambition Life, a stagnant lair in which to lie
Taste the scent, realize ambition The chains that bind us, grow stronger
A label to some, habits preset
Faction alienation, bias hold the key
