United

Hudson Henry

From bright Tokyo lights
Into Rome's underground
From Paris at night
To the sound of London's bellsTake me away tonight
Let your dreams come to lifeI hear the words of change
I see a world without pain
We will fall divided
We will stand here unitedFrom Venice canals
To the open ocean
From the tombs in Egypt's sand
To the walls of the VaticanTake me away tonight
Let your dreams come to lifeI hear the words of change
I see a world without pain
We will fall divided
We will stand here unitedI hear the words of change
I see a world without pain
We will fall divided
We will stand here united
